BRUNCH

Swifts Attic- Hidden in plain sight on Congress Ave it's a local favorite. Best yet, they take reservations.

Hillside Farmacy – Historic building with an updated eclectic vibe with a focus on locally sourced ingredients.

Clarks- Oysters and all your regular brunch staples makes this clarksville spot perfect for a slow Sunday morning.

Moonshine- The line gets long, so arrive early!

Bouldin Creek Cafe- Neighborhood staple serving vegetarian food with a funky vibe.

Elizabeth Street Café- Thai with great pastries & amazing breakfast Bahn Mi.

Ciscos- Laid back and historic Austin spot with cheap breakfast, large portions, and casual vibe. P.S. Get the Migas with biscuits.

DINNER

Launderette- As it's name implies this restaurant had a former life as a laundrette. Now it lives on as an East Side hub for great food and drinks. *Pretend it's your birthday and order the birthday cake ice-cream sandwich, just trust us on this one.

La Cadesa- Upscale Mexican food in the heart of downtown. Do not miss their margaritas and ask for a seat on their patio if the weather permits.

Perla's - on south congress serving seafood. If it's good weather request a spot on the patio.

Irene's- cute patio serving toast and treats late into the night and more hearty items in the dining room. Stay post dinner for drinks and mingling.

Sway- Thai food with small plates great for sharing with large groups.

DRINKS

The Classics

Eberly- NYC imported old world wooden bar in an updated and hip Austin eatery.

South Congress Hotel - Great spot to assemble the crew before dinner and drinks.

Whistler- On the east side and with little fuss. Interesting cocktails with a laid back attitude & great aesthetic.

Rainey Street- An entire street full of old bungalows refurbished as bars. Best to pick one bar (we suggest starting at Luster Pearl, or Bungalow) and make your way down the street. It's also really fun on Sundays! Icenhour's has an awesome Sunday Funday with cheap sangria and a live band.

White Horse- learn to two-step before moving on to more hipster east side bars.

DRINKS

Funkier Spots

Barbarella- Feeling a little wild? Grab your girls and hit the dance floor. Open late and always spinning great dance tracks, Barbarella is our pick for a girls night out.

Ego's- Hidden gem Karaoke spot hidden beneath a South Congress parking garage.

Continental Club- Watch live music and get the old school vibes

Cosmic Coffee + Beer Garden - Beer, food trucks, and live music all in a casual

The Infinite Monkey Theorem - Urban wine tap room with art gallery and spacious venue

HOW TO GET AROUND

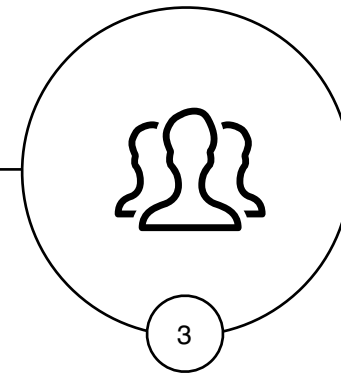

CAR

Use your personal car or a ride sharing app to get around Austin. Taxi's are available, but harder to come by. Try alternatives such as ride share apps, car2go, or pre-organized party busses to help you get around town.

BIKE

Austin is a bike friendly city with plenty of open space and bike lanes to help you get around town . Rent a bike from Mellow Johnny's bike shop or rent on the go through the bike sharing stations located around town. If you don't want to do the peddling, you can always flag down a pedicab driver and let them do the work for you.

FOOT

Austin is a small city at heart, so most places downtown can be reached by foot. Try parking and exploring by foot to get the best views and find some of Austin's many hidden gems.
